THE ART OF MAKING SALADS

This Is the Season for Practising It — Practical Hints to Housekeepers.

To make mayonnaise dressing, place the yolks of two eggs in a shallow dish with half a tea-spoon of ground English mustard, a salt-spoon of salt and half a salt-spoon of red pepper; mix well and stir briskly for a few moments; have ready one and one-half cups of the best olive oil and pour into the mixture a drop at a time, stirring steadily. When it thickens you can turn more oil at one time, as it becomes too thick to stir; add, part at a time, two table-spoons of vinegar or lemon juice until you have used all the oil, stirring until thick and smooth. For meat or fish salad add a tea-spoon of Worcestershire sauce to the dressing.

The usual proportions for making French dressing are six table-spoons of oil, a tea-spoon of salt and a small half tea-spoon of pepper; mix well and add three table-spoons of vinegar.

Chicken salad is a favorite with almost everyone. Have your chicken well seasoned when boiling, use the light meat, cut in cubes, and to one quart of meat use one and one-half pints of celery, cut fine. You can use the hearts of lettuce at this season of the year. Mix some of the mayonnaise dressing with the meat and celery; put in your salad dish and spread a generous layer of dressing over the top. Scatter a few capers and pitted olives over it and garnish the edge with delicate celery leaves.

For lobster salad, cut the meat of a freshly boiled lobster into half-inch pieces and mix with mayonnaise dressing; take two lettuce leaves and place together to form a saucer, and place a table-spoon of salad on them. Put more dressing on the meat and leave a little white heart leaf of lettuce sticking up in the dressing. Serve shrimps in the same manner. The German way of making and serving lobster as a salad is to line a shallow dish with lettuce leaves, cut the lobster into inch pieces, and put on the leaves; scatter over that a table-spoon of chopped parsley and one of finely chopped onion, and, last, four hard-boiled eggs pressed through a puree sieve. Pour over this a French dressing, to which has been added a table-spoon of Worcestershire sauce.

Tomatoes make a beautiful salad alone with French dressing, as well as served with many combinations.

Tomatoes and sweetbreads make a dainty and handsome salad. Take tomatoes uniform in size, peel and cut a thin slice off the top and take out the inside, then set on the ice to chill. Have one pair of sweetbreads, clean and parboiled, then throw them in cold water for an hour, remove the skin and cut into small pieces, using a silver knife so as not to discolor them. Mix with mayonnaise dressing and filled the chilled tomato with the mixture; put a tea-spoon of dressing on the top of each one, and place the tomato on a lettuce leaf to serve.

Another filling is composed of a cucumber, a slice of onion, and a little parsley, chopped together. Season with salt, pepper, celery seed, and tea-spoon of vinegar. Prepare tomatoes as for sweetbreads, fill with this mixture, and put a tea-spoon of mayonnaise or the top, and stick a bit of parsley in place.

To make tomato and sardine salad, remove the skin, heads, and tails of twelve good-sized sardines, place in a shallow bowl some crisp lettuce leaves, break the sardines into small pieces and scatter over the lettuce, take several tomatoes that have been thoroughly chilled,

DESCRIPTION AND TERMS:

"CREOLE" is the gamest, fastest and best bred stallion that has ever been imported into the Hawaiian Islands. He reduced his record of 2:20 to 2:18 in Petaluma, Cal., Aug. 24, 1894, displacing his whole field in the first heat; then again to 2:15 in Stockton, Cal., September 23, 1894, winning the first heat in 2:15 1/2, fourth heat in 2:15, and fifth heat in 2:19 1/2, proving that he is a remarkably game as well as a speedy race horse. ("Creole" by Prompter out of Grace by Buccaneer shows that he is capable of getting a mark of 2:10, and is one of the gamest stallions seen this year, and besides being game, is one of the best formed and remarkably intelligent. "Breeder and Sportsman, Sept. 25, 1894.") He is 15 1/2 hands high and of powerful build throughout. His color is glossy black with one white hind foot. His disposition is all that could be desired and his action superb. He is a sure foal getter.
